

We all need

Will you be our Friend?

The Friends of the Ypsilanti District Library need your help to accomplish our mission.

Friends of YDL help...

- Encourage community interest in the library
- Improve library facilities, programs, and services
- Purchase books and art

Your support provides...

- More books for young children
- Better computer access
- Library materials for homebound patrons
- Special community events

How to join...

You could volunteer at the Friends' Shop, help with book sales, or sort donated books.

Fill out the form below and mail it in or return it to the library to get started.
